Who were you?

Who do you want to be?

I want to be driven and motivated to do what I love. I want to be not afraid of things and don't overthink too much. In the end, I want to go where life takes me and be the person that is able to wake up every morning to do what they love and just enjoy everything that is put in front of them.

My Object - Laptop

My object, my laptop, represents who I was in that it shows my curiosity and wanting to learn how things work. My laptop represents who I am in that it shows me as a student in the modern-day. Besides holding my work and note it represents much of what I study. Finally, my laptop represents who I want to be in that it represents what I want to study in college as well as the field I want to work in, that is cyber security.
